ARTICLES OF FAITH.

Having been enabled, through Divine Grace, to give up ourselves unto the Lord, and likewise to one another, by the will of God, we account it a duty incumbent upon us to make a Declaration of Faith and Practice, to the honor of Christ and glory of his name: knowing, that as with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, so with the mouth confession is made unto salvation: which declaration is as follows:

OF THE BIBLE.

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the word of God, and the only rule of Faith and Practice.

OF GOD.

We believe that there is but One only living and true God: and that He has made himself known to his people under the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, the same in essence, and equal in every Divine perfection.

OF SIN.

We believe that man was created in a holy and happy state, but being in honor did not abide, but by disobedience to the law of his Creator, he not only exposed himself to personal misery, but involved his whole posterity in the temporal and eternal consequence of sin: and, as effect of his apostasy, the whole human race possess a depraved and degenerate nature, by which they are wholly disinclined and unable to every thing morally good, and prone to choose and delight in evil.

OF REDEMPTION.

We believe that the only way of salvation from this state of guilt and condemnation is through the imputed righteousness and atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ, who, as the good shepherd, laid down His life for his sheep, and who is now exalted to be a Prince and Savior to give repentance unto Israel and forgiveness of sin, so that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

OF ELECTION.

We believe that all who have ever been, or who will be hereafter brought to repentance and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, were from the beginning chosen in Him to salvation, through sanctification of the spirit and belief of the truth, and that in consequence of the everlasting love of God to them through the great atonement, the Holy Spirit is sent down to effect the work of regeneration in their hearts, without whose influence none would ever repent or believe.

OF PERSEVERANCE.

We believe that nothing can finally separate true believers from the love of God, but that they will be kept by His mighty power through faith unto eternal salvation.

OF JUSTIFICATION.

We believe that all real believers are justified only by the righteousness of Christ imputed to them, without the consideration of any works of righteousness done by them, and that the full and free pardon of their sins and transgressions is only through the merits of Christ according to the riches of His grace.

OF ASSURANCE.

We believe, that although a full assurance of our interest in Christ is not always the immediate consequence of saving faith, yet as it is an inestimable blessing enjoyed by many in this life, we esteem it to be the indispensable duty of believers to give all diligence to make their calling and election sure; that thereby their hearts may be enlarged with gratitude to God, and inspired with holy alacrity in all the duties of evangelical obedience.

OF ORDINANCE.

We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances instituted by Christ, to be continued until his second coming. That none have a scriptural right to baptism until they profess their faith in Christ; that the ordinance can be properly administered only by immersion; and is, by Scripture example, a pre-requisite to communion at the Lord's table.

OF THE LORD'S DAY.

We believe, that the first day of the week, called the Lord's day, ought to be kept holy as the Christian Sabbath; and that it is our indispensable duty to assemble ourselves together on that day, and to worship God in a public manner, by offering up our prayers and thanksgivings by attending to the preached word and ordinances and by singing Psalms, Hymns and spiritual songs.

OF RESURRECTION AND FINAL JUDGMENT.

We believe, that there will be a general resurrection and day of judgment. That Christ will come a second time with power and great glory; that His voice will then raise the dead, and change the living in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, and all shall be judged according to the deeds done in the body. Then those who shall be found unreconciled to God, shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous shall be received into his kingdom and glory, and so shall they ever be with the Lord.

COVENANT.

Now all and each of these doctrines and ordinances we look upon ourselves as under the highest obligations to embrace, maintain and defend believing it to be our duty to stand fast in one spirit, with one mind; striving together for the faith of the Gospel.

And whereas we are very sensible that our conversation, both in the world and in the church, ought to be as becometh the Gospel of Christ; we judge it our incumbent duty to walk in wisdom towards them that are without; to exercise a conscience void of offence toward God and man, by living soberly, righteously and godly in the present world, with all due submission to magistracy as an ordinance of God.

And as to our regards to each other in our church communion, we esteem it our duty to walk with each other in all humility and brotherly love, to watch over each other's conversation, to stir up one another to love and good works not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as we have opportunity, to worship God according to his revealed will and when the case requires, to warn, rebuke and admonish one another, according to the rules of the Gospel.

Moreover, we think ourselves obliged to sympathize with each other, in all conditions, both inward and outward, which God in his providence may bring us into; as also to bear with one another's weakness, failings and infirmities, and particularly to pray for one another, and that the Gospel, and the ordinances thereof might be blessed to the edification and comfort of each other's souls, and for the gathering in of others to Christ, besides those who are already gathered.

All which duties we desire to be found in the performance of through the gracious assistance of the Holy Spirit, whilst we both admire and adore the grace which has given us a name and place in God's house better than that of sons and daughters.

BY-LAWS.

I. The Pastor of the Church shall always be considered the standing Moderator.

II. The Pastor shall be at liberty to appoint another to fill his place for the time being; and in case there is no Pastor, or in case of his absence, the Church may elect another to fill the office pro tem.

III. The Pastor shall have power to call special meetings for business; and in case of his disability, any two or more members may do so by applying to the Clerk, who shall give publicity to the same.

IV. Twelve members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

V. The regular Church Meeting shall take place on the Monday evening immediately preceeding the first Sabbath in each month, upon which Sabbath the Lord's Supper may be administered.

VI. It shall be a standing rule of the Church, that persons desiring Baptism and membership with us shall relate in person, their religious experience before the body. A person presenting a letter of recommendation, written, and executed in a proper manner, from another Church of corresponding faith, and desiring admission by virtue of the same, and no valid objection being known otherwise to exist, said applicant shall be admitted, provided said applicant shall be always allowed to relate his or her religious experience and this at his or her option.

VII. When a person desires to unite with the Church, the Pastor shall appoint a committee of two (male or female, as the case may be, in connection with the applicant), himself being considered the chairman; and the said committee shall visit the said applicant and ascertain whether it is befitting for said applicant to proceed, give suitable advice and report the same to the Church, and solicit their action on the same; but a deviation from this rule may be allowed, whenever the Church deem it necessary.
